Petite Sirah

VINTAGE 2015 | CALIFORNIA

FROM THE WINEMAKER

As the very first red grape that founder Warren Bogle planted in 1968, Petite Sirah is truly our family's "heritage" varietal.

Petite Sirah is known for its concentration and intensity, the 2015 vintage is no exception. Inky purple in the glass, this deeply colored wine resonates with juicy blueberries and hints of freshly turned earth. Succulent and savory notes of dark berries and roasted spices create a supple and mouth-filling texture. Aging in American oak for 12 months captures and concentrates the flavors, leading to a finish with chalky and chewy tannins laced with vanilla, toasted brown sugar and dark cocoa.

A FEW OF OUR FAVORITE PAIRINGS:

- Smoked Lamb Shoulder with Rosemary
- Braised Short Ribs with Blackberry Barbecue Sauce
- Smoked Gouda Cheese
